PLEASANT DAYS AT JUAREZ

RACING GOING ON AT MEXICAN COURSE UNDER CONDITIONS LITTLE SHORT OF IDEAL.

While Northern Part of Country Is Snowbound, Patrons of Jockey Club Juarez Enjoy High-Class Sport in Balmy Sunshine.

El Paso, Tex., February 21.—While many parts of the United States have lately been invaded by low temperatures and heavy snowfalls, the patrons of the Jockey Club Juarez have been basking in bright, warm sunshine, and enjoying high class racing on the fastest track in the world. Each afternoon the sun has shown here throughout the winter with the clearness and warmth of May in the north. It has been an ideal winter here and big crowds daily throng the Juarez course, which is most pleasing to the eye with its green fields, lawns and approaches. James Butler and Price McKinney were amazed and captivated by the present beauty of the great plant and because the weather was so delightful both extended their stay. As for the racing the program have been amazingly good. Many horses are racing here that can win anywhere the sport is conducted and there are as skillful a lot of riders at the Mexican course as will be found anywhere. The racing officials are of the highest connected with the turf and they have kept the sport clean and free from scandal during the long meeting. What in and out running has occurred has been among the cheap-selling platers, which are often inconsistent from the fact that a few pounds off or on frequently makes a difference in their performances. That the meeting will wind up on March 22 in a blaze of glory is now a foregone conclusion and regret will be expressed by the horsemen here when the time comes to depart.

Favorite and long shots divided the Juarez card evenly this afternoon. The summerlike weather that is prevailing helped to bring out a large Saturday crowd and speculation was brisk.

Climber, from the stable of James Butler, won the juvenile dash and the easy manner in which she scored led to the impression that she may be a high-class filly.

No Quarter was the longest priced winner of the day, being quoted at 25 to 1. He disposed of an ordinary lot of selling platers going a mile. Little Marchmont won the other mile race from good opposition in 1:38 2/5.

Jockey Roy Carter was the victim of an unfortunate accident after the running of the sixth race. He had the mount on Sharper Knight and just after the finish the horse ran through a gap on the upper turn. He struck the fence post with such force that Carter's left leg was broken.

The P. T. Chinn dispersal sale took place today, seven horses being sold for $5,400. Gipsy Love for $825 and J. Hoskins bought Durin from John Lowe at a private price.

Presiding Steward Charles F. Price leaves tomorrow for Naples, Fla., to enjoy a well-earned rest. Judge Price is greatly admired in this section for his fair and impartial dealings with one and all.

Gypsy, James Butler's Ben Brush filly, which ran second to her stable companion, Climber, in the Senoritas Stakes, in her only start here, is a sister to Wedding Bells, which ran Sir Martin to neck in the Saratoga Special of 1908, and was rated that season as second only to Maskette among the two-year-old fillies in J. R. Keene's stable. She was so well thought of by that noted turfman that she was shipped to England to race, while Maskette remained in this country. Runaway Girl, the dam of Wedding Bells and Gypsy, is a daughter of Domino, out of Fair Vision, by Touchet. Fair Vision is also the dam of Trance, which won 16 races and earned $28,147 as a two-year-old in 1908. Touchet, the sire of Fair Vision, is a son of Lord Lyon, winner of the Two Thousand Guineas, Derby and St. Leger in 1867, while the grandam of Wedding Bells and Gypsy is Enchantress, by Scottish Chief—Lady Love, by Blair Athol, the last named being the winner of the Derby and St. Leger of 1863 and which sold for $62,500, a record price up to his day.

There is some sentiment behind Price McKinney's effort to purchase in Kentucky the famous McGrathiana Farm. His father was a life-long friend of Price McGrath, who first established a breeding stud at this place and the present owner of the late J. R. Keene's celebrated band of stallions and broodmares was named for that noted turfman, who raced Tom Bowling, Tipperary, Blarney Stone, Susan Ann, Rhynodine, Lucy Fowler, Jury, Artist, Leonard, Calvin, Aaron Pennington and won the first Kentucky Derby with Aristides. After the passing of McGrath, under Milton Young's ownership, McGrathiana Farm had at one time more thoroughbreds than were ever gathered together on one farm, except the studs in California and Kentucky owned by J. B. Haggin, namely Rancho del Paso and Elmhurst. Mr. McKinney can recall many pleasant days spent by him at McGrathiana when he was a young man.

Arasee, which in the season of 1911 and 1912 was one of the star performers at the Juarez course, was recently fired at Juarez by Dr. C. Cann, who believes he has a chance to come back to the track once more in winning form, though he is now nine years old. He last started in June of last season at Alau, Idaho. Up to the end of 1912 he had been active in racing and during his career he has won forty-three victories. Cool, a horse which it once was charged was Arasee being run under the

LONG SHOTS SCORE AT CHARLESTON.

York Lad and Earl of Savoy, Both Quoted at Liberal Odds, Win Handicaps.

Charleston, S. C., February 21.—Two selling handicaps, one at three-quarters and the other at one mile and seventy yards, were offered as features by the Charleston Fair and Racing Association at Palmetto Park this afternoon. Both provided interesting contests. The longer of the two resulted in a furious stretch drive between Earl of Savoy and Feather Duster, in which the former, thanks to Jockey Turner's excellent finish, won by a scant half length. Feather Duster was probably best, but McTaggart made a mistake by going wide on the first turn and then rushing his mount to the front in the backstretch racing. Feather Duster was timed the second quarter in 24 1/2, which was a killing pace considering the state of the going. The result was that when Turner made his effort with Earl of Savoy in the homestretch Feather Duster had nothing left to withstand the challenge and he lost a purse that he should have won.

Coppertown was another horse whose chances were not improved by the ride he got. The apprentice rider, F. Murphy, seemed content to take the outside route with him and in the stretch racing, when he appeared to have third place at his mercy, his rider handled him so listlessly that he was beaten by Rye Straw for the show. The winner of this race turned up in York Lad, which scored in a canter.

Tom King, which appears to race better on Saturday than on any other day, scored another victory this afternoon at long odds. His victory was in a measure due to the weak effort of Frach on the favorite, Toddlings. Prior to the race the stewards served a warning on Frach to do his best, as they were not satisfied with the way the horse was racing in the betting. A heavy plunge that developed just at post time forced his odds downward. The officials suspended Frach for one week for his handling of the horse.

Jockeys R. Neander and D. Connelly were suspended for three days for riding. The apprentice rider, Frank J. Coleman, who left here for Juarez several weeks ago to consummate the purchase of General Villa, Emerald Gem and one or two other horses, returned to Charleston this morning. Mr. Coleman was successful in his mission to the Mexican track and the horses that he purchased are due to arrive here Monday morning. They will be turned over to James Arthur to train.

Jockey R. Waldron, reinstated at the recent meeting of the Jockey Club had several mounts this afternoon and piloted Willis to Victory.

Fred Cook and Fred Owen were among the layers who put in the afternoon. In all there were fourteen doing business.

J. W. Johnson received word from Kentucky that Flora Fina, which went wrong in the running of the Kentucky Endurance Stakes at Churchill Downs last fall, is again in good condition. The firing irons were applied to Flora Fina's legs before she was sent into winter quarters at E. R. Bradley's Idle Hour Farm. She is now going soundly and is taking daily gallops.

Daddy Gip has again changed hands, his new owner being C. Martinez, a local man.

Single Ray, which A. G. Blakeley brought south last fall, changed hands yesterday. Sport Jamie Todd purchased him for $1,000.

Laura was taken sick this morning and was excused from starting in the fifth race.

The blanks for the stakes to be run at Douglas Park and Latonia were received by Frank Bruen this morning and were distributed among the horsemen this afternoon. Entries to these events will close March 7. Among the fixtures are the Kentucky Handicap, $10,000 added; the Latonia Derby, $5,000 added; the Cincinnati Trophy, $3,000 added; and other events with $2,000 added.

The track was heavy at Palmetto Park this morning, which accounted for the slow time made in the work-outs, among which were:

Black Earl—Half mile in 53.
Bryndlimah—Three-quarters in 1:28.
Carlton G.—Mile in 1:48 1/2.
Cherry Seed—Half mile in 52 1/2.
Colonel Cook—Three-quarters in 1:22.
Eaton—Three-quarters in 1:23 1/2.

Jesse Jr.—Half mile in 54 1/2.
Mallie S.—Three-quarters in 1:22.
Robert Bradley—Quarter mile in 25 1/2.
Sherwood—Three-quarters in 1:23.

PROMINENT TURFMAN DIES AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., February 21.—Gus Eastin, aged 79, one of the oldest and most prominent of American turfmen, died at his home in this city last night after a brief illness of pneumonia. Mr. Eastin was at one time the senior member of the firm of Eastin & Larabee, which owned and raced many good horses, including Kinley Mack, the first horse to win both the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps. Mr. Eastin was well to do and left a valuable estate, which will be divided among several cousins and nieces. He was unmarried and was a veteran of the Civil War.

Mr. Eastin retained a keen interest in the turf to the end of his life. While in attendance at the races at Churchill Downs not long ago he told a few friends how he came to go into racing. He became acquainted with a Montana millionaire, S. R. Larabee, while he was in the grocery business in Lexington and also farming on a small scale. While visiting Deer Lodge, Mr. Larabee's home town in Montana, the latter showed Mr. Eastin the famous old mare Christine and said to him, "Eastin, that mare is too good for this country out here, as she has already thrown two good winners in Bonnie Australian and Vice Regent and I want you to take her to Kentucky and keep her for me." Mr. Eastin brought the mare home with him, traveling all the way with her in a box car. The following spring Mr. Larabee wrote him that if the mare had a colt he would be pleased to have Eastin accept a half interest in the suckling and perhaps his part of the colt's winnings would pay him for the trouble in bringing her from Montana to Kentucky. The mare did have a chestnut colt, which developed into the brilliant racer, Montana Regent, that won the turf a fortune for both Eastin and Larabee. Then they soon became full-fledged racing and breeding partners and their stable's success was phenomenal. It is doubtful if their record in sending sensational race horses to the post from a mere handful of broodmares will ever be duplicated. From Post Scout to Kinley Mack no season passed but they had a good horse, the list embracing among others besides those already referred to, Montana Regent, High Tariff, High Order, Ben Holladay, Shipmate, Trolley, Julia L. and First Mate. Mr. Larabee, many times a millionaire, still lives in Montana, but has extensive business interests elsewhere.

former name, is also quartered at the Juarez track.
If there was ever any resemblance between the two, it is not noticeable at the present time and it seems ridiculous that any horseman could be so mistaken as to confound the two. At the time of the race in question, which took place at Louisville, Aracee was in brilliant winning form and if Cool had really been a ringer and Aracee in disguise, instead of being beaten in his race at Louisville that day by County Clerk, he would have won in a common canter.Belle of Bryn Mawr's present good form is one of the most remarkable developments of the Juarez meeting. S. Veiller brought her here last November as a maiden. She has since won seven races, finished second five times and third once, and upon only three occasions has she finished unplaced. She has won both at sprinting distances and up to a mile and an eighth. In the spring of last season J. K. Allen, a Chicago turf enthusiast, sent several three-year-old maidens to the Churchill Downs track at Louisville. Belle of Bryn Mawr was one of them and she is the only one of the lot to develop good form. Allen, it is said, sold her for less than $100. S. Veiller only gave $200 for her and after winning several races with her, he sold her for $600. She is worth several times that sum now and doubtless will be even a better performer in another season, as she is just now coming into her fully developed racing form, never having raced as a two-year-old.Among the newcomers in the apprentice class at Juarez is A. Mott, under contract to a Vancouver turfman, who is racing no horses this winter. Mott has a good seat on a horse, can use his hands skillfully and has already learned to sit still when driving would make his mount tire under him. Such a good judge as Col. W. E. Applegate thinks the boy has a great future before him and it is reported that James Butler has made some inquiries as to the price asked for the contract on the boy. He is a manly little fellow and has been well raised, having come from a good family. He can ride as light as a feather and it looks as if he will be in the featherweight division of jockeys for a long time.Dr. C. Cann has gelded two of Jefferson Liv-ingston's two-year-olds and before the big string is shipped from here to the Kentucky tracks at the close of the Juarez meeting, he will likely have only geldings and fillies of this age in his stable, with the exception of one colt, which has not as yet raced. Ed Howard, the crack juvenile of the string and winner of the Yucatan Stakes, is already a gelding and races like an old horse. Ed Howard was bred by P. T. Chinn, who, if he goes to France, as he now contemplates, in the spring, may take the dam of this gelding with a band of other good young mares to that country with him. He owns, in addition to the dam of Ed Howard, a band of young mares of rich blood lines.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Austrian Derby will be run June 7.
Ringling is again in training at Palmetto Park after a brief let-up.M. Del Rosa, a noted Italian handicapper, died recently at Naples.Jockey J. Reiff, who spent the winter in this country, has returned to Europe.J. G. Follansbee, president of the Jockey Club Juarez, has sailed from New York on a trip to Europe.The American racer Restigouche, which S. C.
Hildreth took to France, won about $3,500 in steeplechase races in that country last year.Andrew Miller, Phil J. Dwyer, Thomas Monahan and John Waters, all prominent on the eastern turf, are on their annual pilgrimage to French Lick Springs.Jockey M. McGee, having returned from America, where he married Miss Brown, daughter of an American trainer, is now domiciled at Lamorlaye.
Le Jockey, Paris.The Prix du Commerce, to be run at Milan, Italy, Sunday, May 17, is to be a $100,000 race for thoroughbreds three years old and over. The distance is one mile and three-quarters.Donald Macdonald and Dartworth have been turned out in a paddock at Charleston and are being freshened for the spring and summer campaign of the J. L. Holland stable on the eastern tracks.After the disqualification of his entry in the handicap at Palmetto Park Wednesday, H. G. Bedwell made a statement in which he said that the decision of the stewards was just and that he did not expect to secure the race, even before the claim of foul had been made.The first shipment of the season to Norfolk was made a day or two ago from Belmont Park, whenT. J. Healey sent eight of R. T. Wilson's horses to Al. Westcott, who will race them at Virginia and Maryland. The shipment included a half-brother to Omager and a half-sister to Southern Maid among the two-year-olds.

FIRST FOAL AT MONTREAL.

Montreal, Que., February 21.—The thoroughbred foals are commencing to arrive in this locality.
Sam Nesbitt reports that his mare Adoration dropped a fine filly this week at Nesbitt Heights. The sire of this foal is Allowaise, one of the best-bred horses that has been brought to Canada. Adoration entered the stud in 1910, in which year she was mated with Masterman, her foal being named Gertrude Parker. The latter, however, has not been trained. Adoration was barren in 1912 and shipped her foal last year.

Big Players Take Notice!

Would like to get a few reliable men who place large amounts on the races to place $20 for me in return for real inside information on the races. I am receiving information from a personal friend and owner and he has never sent me a horse that finishes worse than third. He wires me his own horses only. If a proposition like this would interest you, kindly write. J. M. KIRST, 559 12th St., Milwaukee, Wis.

AMERICA'S PREMIER CLOCKER

Formerly Racing Expert for the Denver Post.

NOTICE—As I stated before, I am in Juarez clocking horses for my many clients. This is the chance of your life. I am at the track myself, do my own work; no handicapping or guesswork of any kind, but genuine information obtained by personal inspection of horses and a special knowledge of their condition at the time they race. The stable money is bet on those I give. I am next to some that are cherry ripe and will get the money at good odds. This information cannot be purchased with money alone. It takes influence and friendship of years' standing. The opportunity of a man giving you could not be obtained by you personally for any sum of money. I have been at the business for twenty years, owner, trainer and clocker. I don't sit in an office guessing for you. QUIT DOPING THEM UP. I am on the spot ready, alert, and nothing that will benefit my subscribers escapes me. I state a clocker of your own. You can employ me for $10.00 for any ten days of this meeting. Propositions not considered. Strictly cash only. Telegraph remittance or remit by express order. I wire one or
